The story of the Philippian jailer is a powerful account of salvation, faith, and God's miraculous power. It takes place during the Apostle Paul's missionary journey in the city of Philippi. Paul and Silas were imprisoned after casting out a spirit from a slave girl, which angered her owners. While in prison, they prayed and sang hymns, and an earthquake shook the prison, opening the doors and loosening the chains.

The jailer, witnessing the earthquake and the prison doors open, feared the prisoners had escaped and was about to take his life. Paul reassured him, emphasizing that everyone was still there.
